

CAUTION WILDFIRE IN AREA

The Polly Fire (#435) is burning 2 miles east of the Taylor Highway at mile 108 and will likely exhibit increased fire behavior Sunday and Monday while burning through continuous black spruce. The fire is approximately 250 acres as of Saturday, July 13.

- » Smoke will be present.
- » Slow down. Drive with Caution.
- » Drive with lights on.
- » Firefighting aircraft may be in the area.

Find updated road information at 511.alaska.gov

For fire information, go to Alaska Wildland Fire Information at akfireinfo.com or call 907-356-5511

